

Post Graduate Studies Internationalisation and Pandemic Covid-19 Impact on Supervision The F'SATI model

Agenda

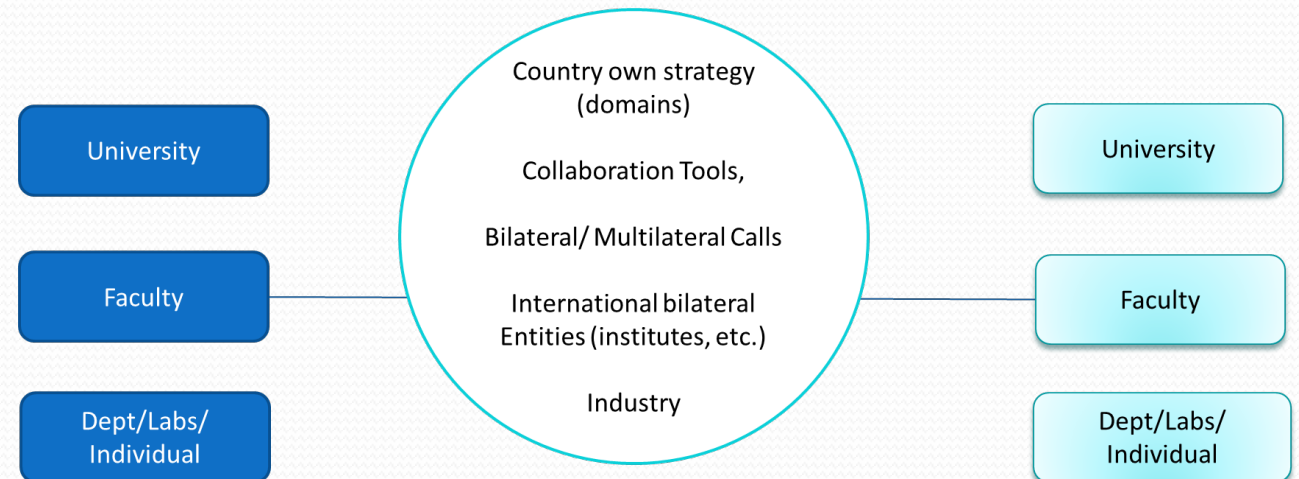

- Context
- Internationalisation impact and PGs studies
- Covid-19 pandemic situation and its impact on supervision
- A need for a unified and sustainable model (framework, research project, researcher) ---
Scaling up ---
 - Top-down
 - Bottom-up
- The F'SATI model
- Conclusion

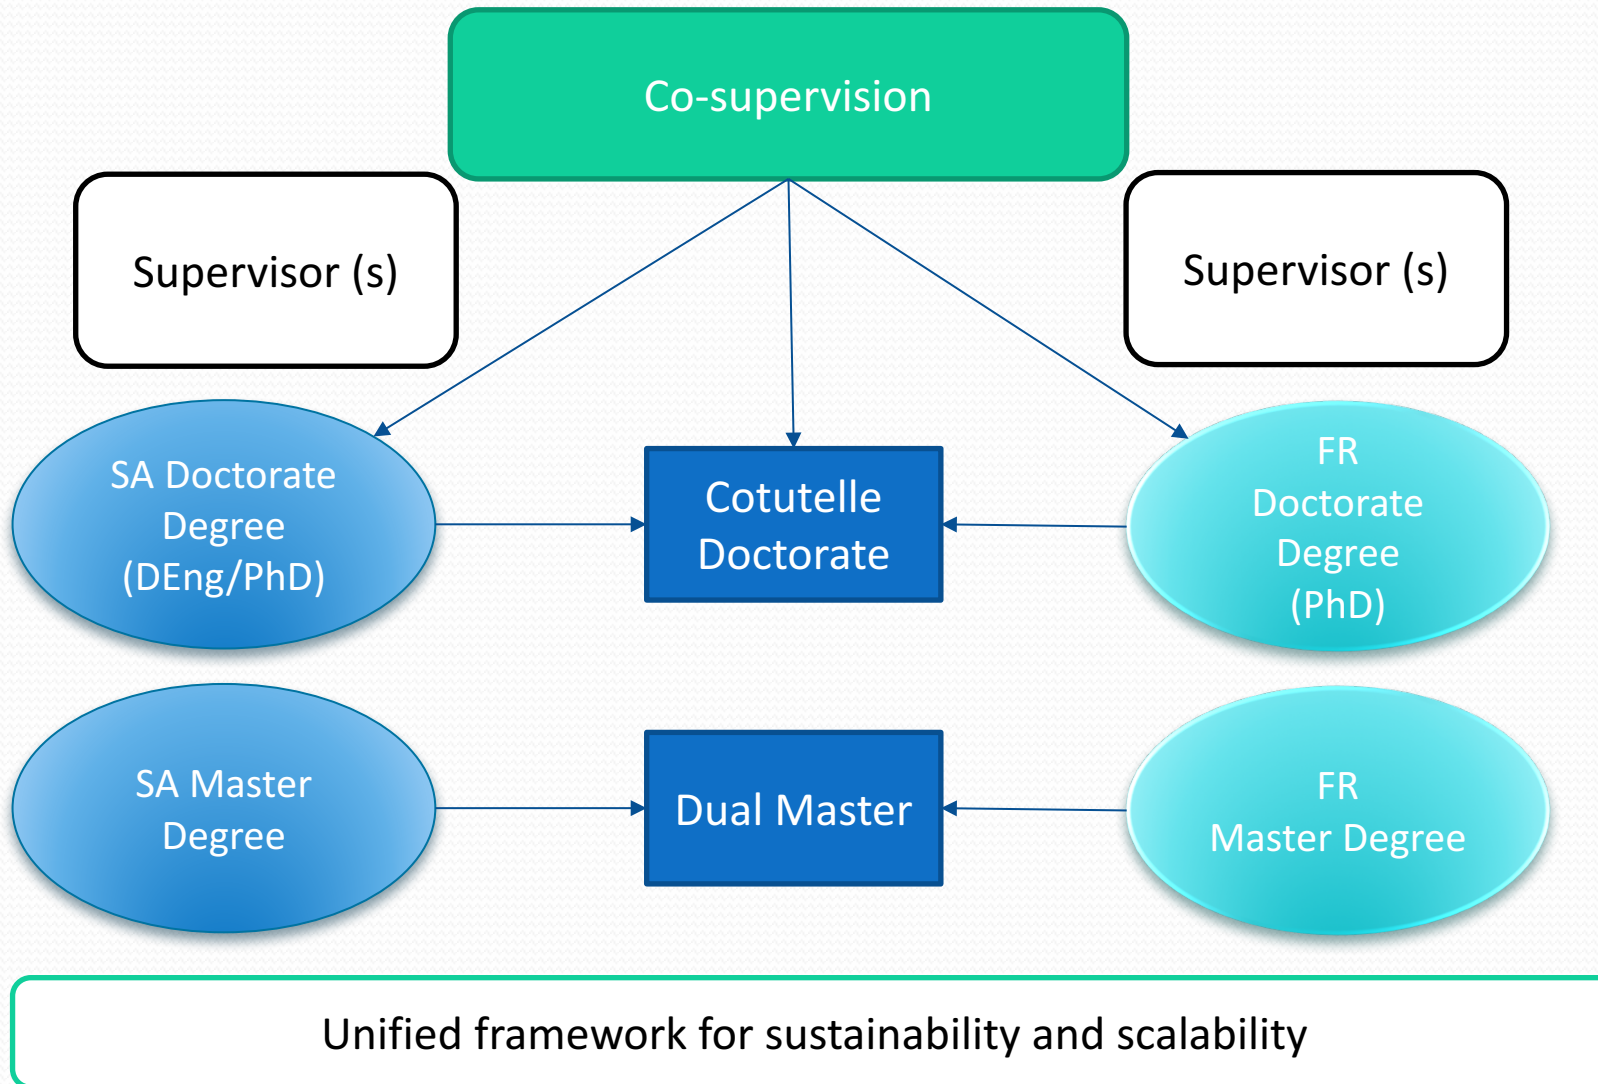

Context

Postgraduate studies – Human Capital Building

- Internationalisation
 - Collaborative research
 - Supervision Capacity
 - Complementary Infrastructure
 - Human Capacity Building
- Interest for PG Students
 - International Exposure
 - Mobility
 - Recognition
 - ...
- Sustainability and scalability of the cooperation model
- Resilience

Internationalisation impact and PGs Studies

National Research Agency

National & International calls

Institution (s)

Industry/Economical and social sectors

Contribution to knowledge and societies

Covid-19 pandemic situation and its impact on supervision

- The PG Students

- Review of the Research methodology
- Research management → prioritization
- Stay connected with
 - Supervisor (s)
 - Research group
 - Research lab
 - Research events/training/conferences/
- Documentation /reporting /dissemination
- Review of the Phasing of the research project
- Stay healthy during lockdown phases (food, sport, social connectivity, ...)

- Institutional support

- Documentation system
- Internet connectivity --- support to students
- Computers and other devices for remote research

- Supervision

- Track PG student progress and social/medical situation
- Group meetings (virtual)
- Redefine some actions to cope with the lockdown situation
- Review the protocols for the on-site presence for experimentation purpose (social distancing, use of equipment, etc.)

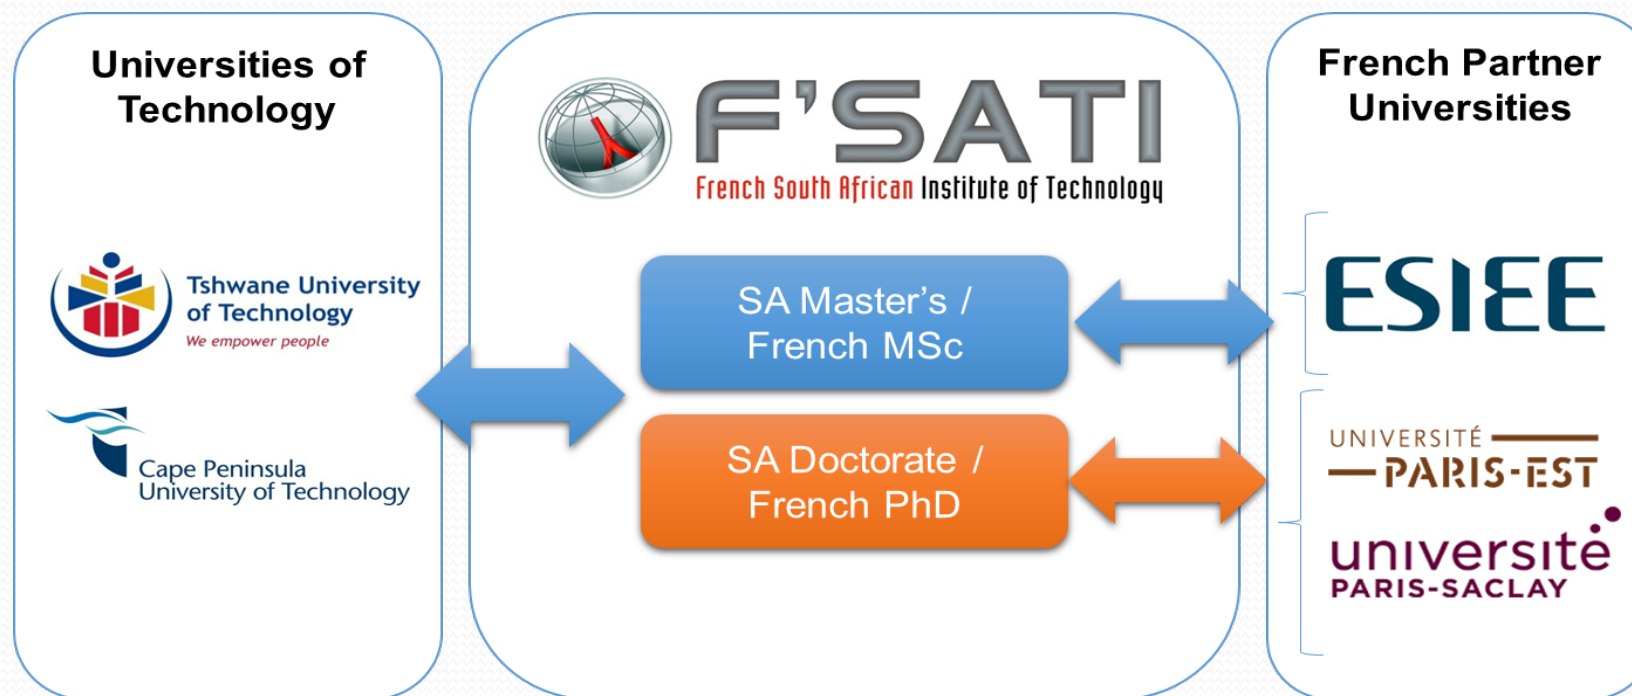

A need for a unified model

Virtual Open Multilateral Entities for knowledge sharing

YEBO! The F'SATI Model

YEBO!

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

Thank You..